

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

BACHELOR'S DEGREE

CAREER INFORMATION

- Bachelor's in Business Administration graduates gain a broad, in-demand skill set that applies to finance, technology, healthcare, and other fields. This degree provides students with versatility, mobility, and room for professional growth.

EDUCATIONAL PATHWAY

- All CSUs and UC Irvine, UC Berkely, and UC Riverside provide this major.
- Concentrations include: Accounting, Computer Information Systems (CIS), E-Business, Finance-Real Estate-Law, International Business & Marketing, Management & Human Resources, Technology & Operations Management
- Preparation for graduate programs such as a Master of Business Administration (MBA), Master of Science in Information Security (MSIS), etc.
- CSU and UC major preparation available at assist.org
- Associate degree for transfer: AS-T Business Administration

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

EDUCATIONAL PATHWAY

ASSOCIATE DEGREE (AS/AA) & CERTIFICATES (C)

- Business Management AS/C
- Business Retail Management AS/C
- General Business AS/C
- Human Resources Management AS/C
- International Management AS/C
- Marketing Management AS/C
- Small Business Management AS/C
- Supply Chain Management C
- Liberal Studies, Business emphasis (AA)

Learn about these business degrees and certificate options by visiting the Business Management site.

CAREER INFORMATION

- May provide foundational knowledge on common business practices that include finance, business analysis, and intelligence, human resources, project management, and customer service
- Sample business jobs: Administrative Assistant, Customer Service Associate, Assistant Store Manager, Sales Specialist, Manager, Private Business Owner, Executive Assistant, etc.

Meet with a Counselor or Educational Advisor to review to find out you can satisfy requirements for Mt. SAC programs and/or transfer to universities.

COUNSELING SERVICES
909-274-4380 mtsac.edu/counseling/