Subject: ICC Constitution Updates Date: May 23rd, 2024

Whereas: The current ICC Constitution does not correctly correlate with the Inter-Club Council section in the Organization Directive. The update will provide a clearer understanding of the ICC Constitution for A.S. officers and RSCOs.

Whereas: The current duties and responsibilities of the Inter-Club Council Officers in the ICC Constitution are as follows:

ARTICLE IV

Duties & Responsibilities

Section 1: ICC shall consist of two Co-Chairs, an ICC Secretary (if appointed), an ICC Senator (or A.S. Representative), and one ICC Representative for each RSCO. The ICC Executive Board shall consist of the two Co-Chairs, and ICC Secretary, and an ICC Senator.

Section 2: Duties of each position are as follows:

- a. Co-Chairs: Serves as Chair at all ICC meetings, oversees all issues brought before ICC, and attends A.S. Executive Board meetings as voting members, attends A.S. Senate Board Meetings as non-voting members. Co-Chairs will alternate chairing of all ICC Meetings. Refer to job description in A.S. Organizational Directive for a complete listing of duties.

b. Secretary: Records, transcribes, and maintains minutes for all ICC meetings. Attends all A.S. Executive Board meetings as an Ex-officio (non-voting) member. If a Secretary is not appointed, the Co-Chairs assume the administrative responsibilities.

c. ICC Senator: Serves as liaison between A.S and ICC. Refer to job description in A.S. Organizational Directive for a complete listing of duties.

Therefore: The updated duties and responsibilities of the Inter-Club Council Officers shall be written as follows:
